

Camp Randall Rowing Club Junior Parent Committee

The Board of Directors of Camp Randall Rowing Club (CRRC) establishes a Junior Parent Committee (JPC).

The mission of the JPC is to manage, coordinate, support and execute all non-coaching activities required to successfully conduct Camp Randall Rowing Club's Junior Rowing Program.

The responsibilities of the JPC include the following:

1. Collect registration forms, waivers, emergency contact information forms and collect, deposit and maintain records of the fall, spring & winter workout programs and travel fees paid by the families of Junior rowers;
2. Collect registration forms, waivers, emergency contact information forms and collect, deposit and maintain records of the program and travel fees paid by the families of the summer HS and middle school Learn to Row programs;
3. Organize, manage and coordinate the Annual Spring and Fall Parent Meetings, Open House, Awards Ceremony and other social activities;
4. Organize, manage and coordinate fund-raising activities for the purchase and maintenance of equipment for the Junior rowing program, including the annual Erg-A-Thon and Bucky's Locker Room;
5. Organize, manage and coordinate the food, team tent, setup and other activities associated with the Junior team's regattas;
6. Organize, manage and coordinate chaperones, lodging, transportation and equipment trailering for the Junior team's travel activities, including but not limited to, the Spring Training Trip, Head of the Charles Regatta, Midwest Junior Rowing Championships, Youth National Invitational, Head of the Fox, Duluth International Regatta, Badger State Games, etc.;
7. Organize, manage and coordinate the procurement and sale of all team clothing;
8. Assist the coaching staff with planning, organizing and coordinating home regattas including the Brittingham Regatta and the Monona Terror Regatta;
9. Organize, manage and coordinate recruitment programs for new Learn to Row participant and Junior rowers; and
10. Prepare reports to the Board of Directors about the activities of the JPC, including recommendations for policies, activities, expenditures, etc., to enhance and support the Summer Learn to Row programs and the Junior Rowing program.

All parents and/or legal guardians of currently enrolled Junior rowers are eligible to participate in the JPC. The JPC shall select a Chair and a Vice-chair and shall organize such subcommittees as necessary to fulfill its responsibilities. The JPC Chair shall serve as a voting member of the CRRC Board of Directors.